

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, According to the American Medical Association, more than 40 million Americans have one or more special medical conditions such as diabetes, a heart condition, allergy to medication or epilepsy; and,

WHEREAS, Over a million Americans protect themselves by wearing the Medic Alert bracelet or necklace which provides instant recognition of their medical condition in case of an emergency; and,

WHEREAS, There are still millions of men, women and children in our country and around the world who have yet to take advantage of the protection that Medic Alert offers; and,

WHEREAS, Medic Alert can be a life-saver, for it communicates a person's special medical needs in the event that he is unable to speak for himself; and,

WHEREAS, All South Dakotans should be aware of this valuable service and should take advantage of the security it provides to individuals with special medical concerns; and,

WHEREAS, In some South Dakota communities, volunteers are needed to share with their friends and neighbors the importance of taking advantage of this potentially life-saving service:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of April 4-10, 1982, as in South Dakota, and I respectfully urge all citizens, especially those with special medical conditions, to learn more about Medic Alert and to order their alerting device today.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixteenth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Two
